

Healthaxis Adds USNow to Client Base
Healthaxis Solutions Chosen Again
By Provider of Limited Benefit Medical Plans

Irving, TX – March 21, 2007 – Healthaxis Inc. (NASDAQ: HAXS), an innovative provider of technology-enhanced, integrated business process solutions and services, including claims and benefit administration applications, web-enabled software solutions and outsourced claims related services for health benefit administrators and health insurance claims processors, today announced it has signed a multi-year contract with Plano, Texas based USNow.

USNow, a nationally recognized leader in the benefits industry, pioneered the concept of managed limited benefit plans in the mid-1990's. They are one of the fastest growing and most dynamic limited medical organizations in the United States. This concept provides access to affordable group healthcare to underinsured, uninsured individuals and corporate employees. Thanks to their low cost and flexible coverage options, managed limited benefit plans are popular with companies of all sizes, many of whom are struggling to adjust to the rising costs of traditional medical plans.

USNow prides itself on using advanced technology and innovative solutions to deliver administrative excellence and unprecedented support to brokers and clients. USNow provides a total solution—enrollment, eligibility, fulfillment—coupled with superior patient advocacy and customer service.

USNow is utilizing the Healthaxis Insur-Admin® system, coupled with a unique implementation of components of the Healthaxis Insur-Claims® system, to streamline eligibility management and to enhance its overall administrative and customer service capabilities. USNow also selected the Healthaxis Smart Front End® solution to manage paper and EDI claims receipt and routing.

“We had been exploring options for enhancing our systems in order to support our growth and enhance the customer service experience for our members and other market constituents,” said David Lindsey, founder and chief executive officer of USNow. “Once we talked with Healthaxis, we knew right away that they understood our business and were willing work with us to meet our unique needs. Healthaxis was very flexible and offered all the capabilities we felt we needed to meet our objectives, and their people gave us a feeling of confidence that we did not get from other potential partners.”

John M. Carradine, Healthaxis CEO said, “We are pleased that USNow chose Healthaxis to support some of the most important core activities of their organization. USNow was careful in making its choices. They picked us because we were able to prove our industry leadership for flexible core benefits administration systems with the lowest total cost of ownership. We look forward to a long and mutually rewarding relationship with them.”
